HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, intented by H. B. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongues may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 1.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The President has appointed Wm A Pile, of Missouri, who was lately rejected for the Brazil mission, as Governor of New Mexico, vice Crowe, who is ineligible. The opinion prevails that Crowe will be confirmed to this office.

John B. Guthrie, a prominent clerk in the office of the Secretary of the Treasury, and for a long time legal advisor of the Internal Revenue Department, has resigned.

It is said that Lewis H. Douglass, the colored printer, was yesterday transferred from a case to a position as copy holder. This action would seem to question the right of admission of colored members to the typographical unions. In such organizations copy holders are not required to be members of such unions, but the issue having been raised, it will in all probability be pressed to a discussion.

The Brooklyn Sunday School Union celebrated its fortieth anniversary to-day. About 15,000 children participated.

Religious Matters.

NEW YORK, June 1.—In the Old School Presbyterian Assembly the resolutions defining the policy towards the freedmen were adopted, except one in favor of employing ministers connected with the Southern churches, which provided that they be placed in the same connection with this Assembly, which was tabled.

The report of the Domestic Mission Committee was discussed and adopted. Also resolutions defining the policy on that subject for the ensuing year.

Resolutions were adopted commending the Bible and Ministerial Institute at Charlotte, N. C., for the education of colored ministers to the Christian liberty of the church for adequate endowment.

Resolutions were adopted that the Committee on Systematic Benefices prepare to send to the Synods and Presbyteries a proportionate amount to be raised, with the understanding that the following shall be the general estimates: Foreign missions, $310,000; domestic missions, $250,000, education, $50,000; publication, $50,000; disabled ministers' fund, $40,000; church extension, $90,000; freedmen, $85,000. Total amount, $875,000.

A resolution was adopted earnestly impressing Christian people with the necessity of more strenuous efforts to prevent the desecration of the Sabbath.

Rev. McKnight made an address in favor of extending pecuniary aid to test the question arising in the Kentucky courts whether the acts of the Ecclesiastical Courts were constitutional. The Ecclesiastical Court had deemed it unconstitutional, which decision was raised by the United States Circuit Court. The case has been appealed to the Supreme Court.

Resolutions were adopted that the General Assembly shall give that Church assistance in its liturgy and appropriates $50,000 to employ the best counsel to defend the case before the United States Supreme Court.

After passage of the usual resolutions of thanks and brief addresses from the Moderator and Devotional exercises the Assembly adjourned to meet in Pittsburg, November 10th.

Indian Ravages.

TOPEKA, June 1.—The Sheriff of Saline county reports thirteen persons, men, women and children, killed in that county by Indians, and as many more are supposed to have been killed. Women are carried off to suffer worse than death. The settlers of Saline county are coming east for protection. A correspondent says if the Quaker Agents do not hurry up, the poor innocent savages will destroy the frontier settlements of Kansas and Colorado.

LEAVENWORTH, June 1.—About twenty white persons have been killed by the Indians in western Kansas during the last week. The murders have been committed by roving bands of Indians. No large bodies have been heard of. The massacres have been the result of guerrilla fighting rather than of a general Indian war. The scene of operations extends from Republican and Solomon rivers to the end of the Kansas Pacific railroad. The settlements in that part of the State are scattered. Gen. Schofield has only a small number of troops at his disposal, but he is making the best use of them he can. Gov. Harvey has organized two companies of scouts, for which Gen. Schofield will furnish arms. There are now in the field a force of surveying parties, all without military protection. Two of these parties are at the north of Fort Hayes, one between Hayes and Larned and one sixty miles west of Hayes. Great fears are felt for their safety.

The Times and Conservative have news of an attack on the settlements along Saline river west of Solomon's. A woman was killed, a boy wounded and three children kidnapped. Soldiers have gone in pursuit.

Stage Accident in California.

WOODLAND, June 1.—John Kennedy, stage driver for Tucker, was thrown from his seat this afternoon while driving at a rapid rate. One wheel of the heavy coach passed over his head, crushing his jaws in a terrible manner. His recovery is doubtful.

Baltimore Dispatch.

BALTIMORE, June 1.—The State Colored Convention met here to-day. Delegates were present from nearly every county of the State. The afternoon session was occupied by speeches and organization. In the convention at the night session a series of resolutions were adopted expressing confidence in Grant and his Administration, and asking that colored apprentices be admitted to all branches of trade, and that no colored mechanics shall be prohibited from any trade; thanking the President and Federal officers for the appointment of colored men to positions, and pledging the colored Republicans of Maryland to the support of regular nominations of the party.

Improvement of the Mississippi.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1. The President of the Chamber of Commerce received a dispatch from the Secretary of War stating that the Government's views as to the importance of improving the navigation of the mouth of the Mississippi river were in accordance with those of the Commercial Convention, and its suggestions relative to the dredge boat now engaged there will be complied with.

General Items.

SYRACUSE, June 1.—The State Temperance Convention met to day, ex-Governor Myron H. Clark presiding.

ATLANTA, June 1.—The corner stone of the Atlanta University, an institution on the plan of the Oberlin and Harvard Colleges, being established under the auspices of the Freedmen's Bureau, was laid to day.

CINCINNATI, June 1.—The Cincinnati Base Ball Club have started on a tour to play with Eastern clubs.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 1.—The dry goods store of Smith & Co. was robbed of $10,000 worth of silks on Sunday night.

MONROE, June 1.—Gen. Sherman and party arrived last night to attend the wedding of a daughter of Gen. Barry. They received the usual salute of seventeen guns.

SARATOGA, June 1.—The season has fairly opened and the hotels are in full blast.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—The venerable Mrs. Charles J. Mester was thrown from her carriage last evening and killed.

ROCHESTER, June 1.—Gov. Hoffman has granted a reprieve of two weeks in the case of Lessner, sentenced to be hung on Friday next.

MOBILE, June 1.—The State Immigration Convention convened to day. There was a large attendance from all parts of the State, and much interest was manifested in plans, providing homes for immigrants, which are in a fair way of being adopted.

From Mexico.

HAVANA, June 1.—Advices from the City of Mexico are to May 16th, by steamer from Vera Cruz.

Many Mexican States have refused to execute the law of Congress for the suppression of party demonstrations.

Gen. Mieza Fuertes is compromised by the revolution in Queratoro and has been degraded by the government from his rank and titles in the army.

Congress had absolved Gens. Alvarez, Davida and Monteverde from the charges of disloyalty.

Kidnappers are being prosecuted with unusual vigor throughout the country.

Telegraphic communication across Mexico, via the capital, is completed from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

A sum of $3,000,000, gold, was on the way from the capital to Vera Cruz.

The steamer City of Mexico, from Vera Cruz has arrived with telegraphic advices from the capital to the 24th. The statement of American journals that Mexico was desirous of raising money by selling Sonora was indignantly denied. Minister Romerans denied sending dispatches to that effect. The Government denies that it asked for his recall.

Senor Romero's bill for the issue of eighteen millions of paper money is in Congress in earnest.

Bardel has arrived from Paris to take charge of the papers of the French Legation in Mexico.

Sixteen of Palacios' officers were shot by Gen. Para in Sinaloa. Palacios was surrounded, but escaped.

Congress was discussing the foreign debt. Cervantian Bixco argued that all treaties with England, Spain and France were annulled by their intervention in Mexico, and new treaties are necessary before the payment of the foreign debt can be considered. Much excitement is created by the attempt of Congress to impeach Juarez and the Supreme Court. The latter claims that Congress has not power to judge of their acts. Gen. Negrete was in the vicinity of Queretaro. The Legislature of that State had assembled and were protecting it.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, June 1.—Nearly all the journals have articles today on the presentation of the address to Motley, and they discuss the probable relation between Great Britain and the United States. The Times after contrasting Sumner's speech in the Senate with Motley's language yesterday, hopes the peaceful tendencies of the latter is not attributable to appearances but is real, practical indications of the views of his Government. In setting aside the controversy Great Britain offers Motley a hearty welcome. The Times is assured that the government and people of both nations will reciprocate his friendly expressions. The News says it is satisfactory to find that President Grant's Government has adopted the policy of conciliation and peace on questions relative to England and the United States. The News is anxious to know the basis on which the new deliberations are to be conducted, and adds: "But if Motley's suggestions to Lord Clarendon are foreshadowed by the spirit shown at Liverpool the Americans may reasonably hope for more. England would be content to accept a settlement arranged by Lord Clarendon and Motley." The Telegraph says any proposition made by Motley will be weighed on its merits, England having made her protest against Sumner's doctrine, and has dismissed it from consideration. The Star rejoices in the friendly tone of the remarks made by the new Minister.

It is rumored that Earl Spencer, Lord Lieut. of Ireland is about to resign.

LONDON, Midnight, June 1.—The Irish church bill was read a first time in the House of Lords to night. It was agreed that the bill should come up for a second reading on the 14th.

MADRID, June 1.—It is reported that the republican members will not oppose the final votes in the Cortes on the question of a form of government for Spain, but will unanimously refuse to subscribe to the oaths prescribed by the new constitution.

BERLIN, June 1.—The North German parliament has passed a law taxing bills of exchange, malt and sugar.

VIENNA, June 1.—John Jay was today introduced to Baron Von Beust, by Watts, the retiring Minister, and afterward had a special audience with the Emperor, when he presented his credentials as Minister from the United States.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

A Paris paper of March 28th contains a lengthy obituary notice of Andrew Johnson. Among other things it states that "the late President was not a member of any temperance organization."

The grain controversy between St. Louis and Chicago grows hotter daily, and the papers of the two cities are beginning to call names. The St. Louis Democrat sarcastically describes the recent grain convention at Chicago as a "funeral" of the grain dealers of that city.

The Chicago Tribune says that a business depression of more than ordinary weight is felt in that city. There is dullness in trade; the receipts and shipments of grain are below their usual average, and there is less than the usual demand for houses to rent and improved property for sale.

Women's Rights have met a new enemy in the shape of the Young Men's Christian Association of Chicago, which has passed a resolution denying the right of women to become members. This is anything but flattering to the sex whose influences for Christianity are so marked on the out side world.

British India has now four thousand two hundred miles of railway in operation, almost wholly the fruit of Government aid. Fifteen years ago she had not five miles of iron road. From Calcutta to Bombay, a distance of fourteen hundred and fifty eight miles, there is unbroken railroad communication.

The Pennsylvania Legislature has passed an act imposing a penalty of $25 for the killing of any insectivorous bird, one-half of the fine to be paid to the informer. The birds that are classed under the head of insectivorous birds are robins, martins, swallows, blue birds, woodpeckers, etc., in fact all the various small birds generally seen in that latitude.

Secretary Boutwell is constantly in receipt of letters asking the reissue of United States bonds that have been lost or destroyed. The Secretary desires it to be understood that the Treasury does not issue new bonds for those lost, and that the only course for the owners to take is to appeal to Congress for the necessary legislation authorizing a reissue.

A Professorship of American History is to be established at the University of Heidelberg, Germany, and a distinguished American scholar offered the chair. It would be well if England and France would immediately found similar professorships. A little knowledge of American history would have saved them both a costly blunder during the late war.

Gov. Wells, of Virginia prints a letter in which he strongly intimates that President Grant desires the rejection of the disfranchisement article of the new Constitution. As a large party of the Virginia Republicans incline to the same policy, Virginia will without doubt reconstruct on the basis of "universal suffrage and universal amnesty," and Mississippi and Texas will follow her lead.

Eastern papers say that the great coal strike in Pennsylvania is entirely uncalled for. It owes its origin to the fact that there is a surplus of coal on the hands of the mining companies and coal dealers of the country. The tendency of this state of affairs, especially at this season of the year, is to produce a decline in price. Hence the strike, in order to close the mines, and prevent further accumulation of stock.

If the terrible Fisk obtains damages in all his libel suits he will grow rich faster than he ever did by peddling or watering railroad stocks. His last suit for libel is against the New York Times, with $100,000 damages, for saying that the receipts of the Erie road and its leased lines, including the plundering frauds on the Atlantic and Great Western, are all appropriated for the general speculative purposes of Gould, Fisk & Lane." Fisk evidently holds to the doctrine, "the greater the truth the greater the libel."

Sensible people have found out that, at four dollars and a half a day, with everything extra, it costs less to spend the summer in Europe, ocean trip and all, than at an American watering place. The glory of the pastoboard palaces for this season is already on the decline, and rightly so. The charges at these places have reached the point of extortion, and the wrong is about to be righted, as all wrongs are in this country, by the voluntary action of the people, which, in this case, takes shape in letting the fleecing hotels severely alone.

A sham one hundred dollar bill of a Cincinnati Commercial College went to Europe, was received as good, and found its way into a bank, which now asks its redemption.

Hon. Ben. Wade has been appointed a Government director, not a commissioner of the Pacific Railroad. The former is a permanent office, the latter a special and temporary one.

The immortal hammer which drove the last nail in the Pacific railroad is now on exhibition, in seventeen of the principal cities of the United States. The spike itself, being of gold, is considered too costly to duplicate.

The Agricultural Department's report for March and April refers to the "Spartina Fibre," or "march or cord grass," which grows quite abundantly in the low river bottoms and in tracts of marsh land in many of the States, as a material for the manufacture of paper, and gives a letter from James Woodruff, of Quincy, Illinois, who has successfully used hundreds of tons of this grass in the manufacture of paper.

A late and very valuable Yankee invention converts the meat of the Irish potato into a substance resembling and answering many of the purposes of ivory. A large factory in Massachusetts is engaged in manufacturing elegant handles for knives and forks, billiard balls, chessmen, draughts, combs, and like articles, out of material obtained by chemical transmutation from the pulp of potatoes. This will be good news for the elephants.

A paper called the Franco Canadian, published in St. John's, Canada, a few miles from the American lines, states that at the railway station in that town emigrant tickets to the amount of a thousand dollars are sold every day, and that other stations near the line sell still larger amounts. Farms are abandoned or offered for sale or to let, furniture and implements are sold at auction, and a general stampede has taken place amongst the people.

In relation to the late interview between President Grant and General Lee, a Washington correspondent says the statement to the effect that Senators and members were turned out of the President's room to admit General Lee, or that there was any consultation on reconstruction matters, are pure fabrications. The only person with the President when General Lee was announced was Mr. Motley, who proposed to retire and return at some other time, but the President requested him to stay.

Freights from St. Louis to Boston on the Missouri this season have ranged from four to six cents per pound. The Missouri Democrat says that passage has been so low that any one, in place of paying hotel charges in the city, could make the round voyage five well, become fat and robust and save money; also that no trip is so conducive to health and vigor as a journey to the Rocky Mountains by water. About forty steamers have left St. L— in this spring for the upper Missouri.

A two hundred pound nugget of gold was recently found in Australia. It netted the finders $48,000.

The woman suffrage advocate claim Daniel De Foe, author of Robinson Crusoe, and Bishop Parkley, as on their side, in fact nearly all the wise and good.

A Wisconsin paper has an article on the question: "Shall we all get drunk at the Editorial Convention?" The editor hints that such has usually been the practice, and on the whole he disapproves of it.

The Boston Journal says: "Mr. Joab Whipple of Squ

n the little village of Hydsville, Wayne nty, N. Y., there stood, in 1847, a small se, which had been occupied by Mr. hael Weekman. He had been troubled certain rappings, of which he could give explanation. But they attracted little at tion, and may have had no connection subsequent developments. It was re ed for the family of Mr. John D. Fox, chester, a respectable farmer, to have their nes inseparably associated with the modern ritual movement, based on the phenomena challenging the regard of all thoughtful sons.

Mr. Fox moved into the house 11th of De ber, 1847. His family consisted of him f, his wife and six children; but only the youngest were staying with them at the ne of the manifestations—Margaret, 12 rs old, and Kate 9 years old. The former these sisters subsequently became the wife the celebrated Capt. Kane, the Arctic ex rer.

From the first the family were disturbed by ises in the house, but these they attributed a time to rats and mice. In January, 48, however, the sounds became loud and rtling. Knocks so violent as to produce a mulous motion in the furniture and floor re heard. Occasionally there would be a tter of footsteps. The bed clothes would pulled off, and Kate would feel a cold hand as over her face.

Throughout February and the middle of arch the disturbance increased. Chairs d the dining room table were moved from eir places. Mr. and Mrs. Fox, night after ght, with a lighted candle, explored the use, but in vain. While they stood close the door raps would be made on it; d on their opening it no one would be, nd.

On the night of March 31st, having been oken of their rest for several nights previously, they retired to bed earlier than usual, pping to sleep without disturbance. The unds, however, were resumed. They occurd near the bed of Kate and Margaret. Kate tempted to imitate the sounds by the snapng of her fingers. There was the same mber of raps in response. She then said Now do as I do; count one, two, three, four, e, six," at the same time striking her hands gether. The same number of raps respond, at similar intervals. The mother of the rls then said, "Count fifteen?" and that umber of sounds followed. She then said, Tell us the age of Katie (the youngest daughr) by rapping one for each year;" and the umber of years was rapped correctly. "How any children have I?" There were seven in eply. "Ah!" she thought, "it can blunder ometime." "Try again." Still the number f raps was seven. Mrs. Fox was surprised. Are they all alive!" she asked. No answer. How many are dead?" There was a single ap. She had lost one child.

"Do as I do," said Kate Fox. Such was the ommon ... "Who can tell," asks Owen, where the end will be?"

THE NATIONS WITHOUT FIRE.—According to Pliny fire was a long time unknown to the ancient Egyptians, and when Exodus (the celebrated astronomer) showed it them, they were absolutely in rapture. The Persians, Phenicians, Greeks, and several other nations, acknowledged that their ancestors were once without the use of fire, and the Chinese confess the same of their progeniton. Pompanion, Mela, Plutarch, and other ancients, speak of ... who, at the time they wrote, knew not the use of fire, or had just learned it. Facts of the same kind are also attested by several modern nations. The inhabitants of the Marian Islands, which were discovered in 1551, had no idea of fire. Never was astonishment greater than theirs when they saw it on the coast of Magellan, in one of their islands. At first they believed it was some kind of an animal that lived to and fed upon wood. The inhabitants of the Philippine and Canary Islands were formerly equally ignorant. Africa presents, even in our own day, nations in this deplorable state.

THE APPETITE FOR TOBACCO DESTROYED!
LEAVE OFF SMOKING AND CHEWING THE POISONOUS WEED, TOBACCO.
ORTON'S PREPARATION!
ESTABLISHED 1866.

One box of Orton's Preparation is warranted to destroy the appetite for Tobacco, in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be. If it fails in any case the money will be refunded. It is perfectly safe and harmless to all. It is almost impossible to break off the use of Tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Some thing is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit that has the hold of the Preparation is warranted to destroy the appetite for Tobacco, in any person, no matter how long the habit may be. *If it fails in any case the money will be refunded. trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact, that Orton's Preparation completely destroys the appetite for Tobacco, and before the person is free from any desire for it, before he commenced its use. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by Tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleaning the poison of Tobacco from the system and thus allaying the unnatural cravings for Tobacco. No more hankering for Tobacco after using Orton's Preparation. Recollect it is warranted.

The time taken to allay all desire for Tobacco by the use of the Preparation varies slightly in different persons, the average time being about Five days. Some have no desire for Tobacco whatever after using the Preparation Two days.

The Health and Purse of every Tobacco user in the country calls loudly, ABANDON THE USE OF TOBACCO.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession

We, the undersigned, hereby certify that we have used Orton's Preparation for the purpose of destroying the appetite for Tobacco, and can assure those who are suffering from this habit that Orton's Preparation will certainly destroy the appetite for Tobacco quickly and permanently, and without any bad effect upon the health, and without creating an appetite either for the Preparation or any substitute.

From Samuel Cassidy, Editor Journal & Argus:

PETALUMA, CALIFORNIA, Dec 14, 1868.

For about twenty years I had used Tobacco in its various forms, and for the past eight years had been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that the excessive use of this narcotic was seriously impairing my health, I determined if possible to check myself of the habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite for Tobacco, I sent to Portland, Me., for a box of the medicine, which I received through the mail on the 17th of November. A month has not elapsed and yet the medicine has effectually relieved me from any yearning or desire to use Tobacco in any form. The Preparation is not more difficult or unpleasant to take than to commence chewing gum. I conscientiously believe the Preparation will have the promised and desired effect in every instance where it is given a fair trial. Upon that belief and from an honest desire to assist those who wish to break away from the slavish appetite for Tobacco I offer this testimonial.

SAMUEL CESSIDLY.

Beware of Counterfeits and all articles purporting to be like this, of the same name or otherwise. The great popularity of Orton's Preparation has induced unprincipled persons to attempt palming upon the public counterfeit and inferior articles. The price of Orton's Preparation is $2 per box, or three boxes for $5, sent by mail to any part of the country securely sealed from observation, with passage paid on receipt of price.

HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!
IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

THE SHOOTING AFFAIR AT VANCOUVER.—We have by letter from Vancouver and from gentlemen who came over yesterday, some particulars of the shooting affray which occurred on Monday evening. The immediate parties to it, were Lewis Van Vleet and Alexander Coffee who did the shooting and Thos. J. Fletcher, who was the victim. We are informed that there is a fund of long standing between Van Vleet and Fletcher. The collision was brought about in the following manner: Mr. Fletcher, formerly a member of the Democracy, came out this year in favor of Mr. Garfielde, by which he had excited against himself a degree of animosity on the part of the Democracy and particularly on the part of Van Vleet. Mr. Van Vleet has taken an active part in the canvass and a short time since went over to Puget Sound, as was supposed by the Democrats, to further the interests of Mr. Garfielde. To defeat alike any effort he might make in that direction, Mr. Van Vleet wrote a scandalous letter for publication, assailing the private character of Mr. Fletcher and his family. It was so infamous in its character that the Standard refused to publish it. Fletcher, on personal that the Standard refused to publish it. hearing it came into the hands of Mr. Fletcher was naturally very angry and who declared his purpose of horsewhipping Van Vleet take back his language and apologize. Thus matters stood till Monday evening. On Monday Mr. Fletcher and two or three of his sons were at the river when the Ranger arrived with the Democratic delegation to the Lewis river meeting, among whom were Van Vleet, Alex. Coffee and brother. Fletcher and sons came down to the boat, met Van Vleet and the two Coffees near the U. S. Commissary building, when the conflict took place. The following letter from a gentleman at Vancouver will serve to explain further.

ED. OREGONIAN: Thos. J. Fletcher was shot in the back last night in the most cowardly manner by Alex Coffee, Democratic candidate for Sheriff. It took place near the Vancouver House, (Capt Baker). Fletcher is at the Vancouver House and everything possible is done for him. The two Coffees were both armed and Lewis Van Vleet fired the second time at Fletcher after he was down. Lewis Van Vleet is brother-in-law to the Coffees. They are sons of the bastard chivalry of Virginia. The Coffees and Van Vleet were all armed, while Fletcher and his two sons were not. One of the young Fletchers struck up his arm and knocked up Van Vleet's pistol so that it exploded in the air instead of hitting T. J. Fletcher in the head. There was so much excitement that Mr. Fletcher did not speak. He remains here to-day. Coffee will have a trial before the justice to-day. The Democrats are trying to palliate the deed, but it is such a cold-blooded atrocity they dare not say much. There would have been a general clean out of the Democrats had they been unusually quiet.

The forged letter that Van Vleet had written to the Standard was a part of the cause. The [illegible] took place in a crowd of women and children. Miss Holden, servant girl of Mr. Hiram Cochran, took Mrs. Cochran's babe in her arms, and in close proximity to Mr. Fletcher, and was overthrown in the affray. Fletcher's brother bought his pistol and ammunition at [illegible] but it was a premeditated affair. Witnesses, Mr. Hileman, Captain Baker. The boat leaves and I would write more."

As to the above we have verbal accounts from two or three different sources, which, like all the rumors in this city, are somewhat conflicting. One gentleman puts it thus: When the two Fletchers met Van Vleet and the two Coffees, Fletcher accosted Van Vleet and demanded that he should take back what he had said. He swore that Van Vleet should take it back and make an apology to his (Fletcher's) wife within [illegible] hours—adding a threat, whether of violence or not does not clearly appear. Van Vleet drew a pistol and presented it at Fletcher's head. One of the Coffees struck the pistol up just as it went off, [illegible] with Van Vleet. Alex. Coffee at this time drew a pistol and shot the elder Fletcher in the back. Van Vleet, Fletcher and Van Vleet had a severe struggle for the pistol and each received some hurt before they were separated. [illegible]

There is some conflict in regard to the number of shots fired and by whom, though from all accounts it does not appear that any of the Fletchers was armed.

Fletcher died yesterday, as we hear, a number of arrests were made, but owing to the impossibility of getting ready for examination, that matter was postponed this morning. Van Vleet, the two Coffees, and, we hear, two of the younger Fletchers, are in custody. Up to our last accounts Mr. Fletcher was still living. All attorneys of this city are engaged for the prosecution and the defense.

LONG WOOL.—Some time since we copied from the Alta extracts from an article on Cotswold long or combing wools, in which the [illegible] that in our climate this breed will be found to be more profitable than any other [illegible] Cotswolds in California and [illegible] sheep.

[illegible] a specimen of Cotswold wool from a flock of Mr. John G. Baker, of Yamhill county, this State is not less than nine inches in length. Mr. Baker has just sheared twenty-[illegible] of which the fleece of the largest weighed [illegible] and the [illegible] eight pounds; the average [illegible] pounds. The sheep are larger than the [illegible] and [illegible] more valuable for mutton. [illegible] twice as long as that of any other [illegible] and is worth a corresponding price. These facts would seem to justify the Alta's [illegible] to the [illegible] of the Pacific coast to the question of introducing the Cotswold, in preference to Merinos or any other [illegible] which is based upon the fact that [illegible] belonging to the variety known as [illegible] which is worth anywhere in the world from [illegible] per cent. more than the short fibres [illegible] and in such [illegible] from the report of E. E. Madge, [illegible] to the World's Fair.

[illegible] bred, of the long-wooled races [illegible] of her manufacturing establishments employed by this wool [illegible] that of clothing wool, and having opened [illegible] of cotton. More than half the wool in [illegible] annual product is 250,000,000 pounds, is [illegible] purp[illegible], no wool of the Merino race [illegible]. Here is no more important question to [illegible] and manufacturer, and no more [illegible] to the vital question of cheap [illegible] ers, whether the long-wooled mutton sheep [illegible] profitably in this country. The present [illegible] of this wool is about 5,000,000 pounds, [illegible] of the manufacture, which has been mostly done here, is limited by the supply of the [illegible] this abundant the combed wool industry will [illegible] its place by the clothing industry and [illegible] of the woolen manufacture."

[illegible] of Oregon being quite similar to that of [illegible], we may breed the same families with equal success, but, with equally profitable results [illegible] wool sheep of Oregon are Merinos, the [illegible] effort among the [illegible] growers at present, wisely enough made, perhaps, considering [illegible] of the market at that time; but there are [illegible] to take of the question. The great market [illegible] world are now calling for combing wools, and [illegible] of wool has assumed a greater importance. [illegible] will not answer the market demands is proved by the fact that Oregon wools—almost [illegible] rate below the California or Atlantic [illegible] Despite denial or explanation this is [illegible] been so for two or three years. The fault [illegible] of our wools, but in the want of [illegible] Cotswold will supply this deficiency, no [illegible] of our people should prevent them [illegible] the breed at once.

[illegible] FALLING AWAY.—The British Colonist [illegible] the following: "The table of imports for the [illegible] of the present year appears in the Gazette, from which it would appear that there has [illegible] into the Colony of British Columbia dur[illegible] goods amounting in value to $305,143 40 [illegible] of about $280,600, or 40 per cent., when [illegible] with a corresponding period of 1868. The falling [illegible] does not appear to be confined to one particular [illegible] all appear to have suffered in a like proportion, showing a very rapid diminution in the amount [illegible] goods consumed by the colonists. The value [illegible] agricultural products, leather, live stock, and a [illegible] articles that can be produced here, imported [illegible] the quarter, amounted, in round numbers, to [illegible] or at the rate of $349,000 per year. A sum too [illegible] $343,000." While this decline of [illegible] apparent in British Columbia, it is matter of just [illegible] that our State has been steadily growing in population [illegible] business, with a rapidity never before exceeded. [illegible] have our exports within the last year been largely [illegible] during any former year, but we have added large[illegible] manufacturing enterprises, and thus have we [illegible] marching on" to wealth and importance. The [illegible] between the growth of the contiguous British [illegible] territory on this coast is of the most marked [illegible]. What British Columbia most needs is to [illegible] American flag raised over her territory.

QUARTZ MINE.—The Walla Walla Union of the [illegible] says: "Mr. McGraugh, a well known packer, [illegible] in town last Tuesday, seven days from Old Perry [illegible]. The news he brings in relation to the [illegible] is very cheering. The day previous to [illegible] from the camp, a small party came in who [illegible] doing some extensive prospecting some twelve [illegible] the town, and reported so favorably, and exhibited some fine prospects, that over 250 claims were [illegible] up in less than 48 hours. The creek, which is [illegible], is running high at present, and deters the [illegible] from working claims which have been opened [illegible] though thinks it will be some three or four weeks [illegible] are enabled to work their claims successfully. There is a new camp struck some eighteen miles [illegible] town on the Mo-Yeah, a stream which [illegible] parallel with Perry Creek, on which has [illegible] equally as good prospects. Mr. McGraugh [illegible] that the above district will yet turn out [illegible] very extensive and rich mining country, gold being found in every direction."

MINES AT LAST LOCATED.—We are overjoyed to [illegible] with the Victoria Colonist that "It has been decided by the P. S. Railroad proprietors, that the terminus [illegible] on Nisqually, and situated about five miles [illegible] of the town of Olympia, on Puget Sound, shall be [illegible] of the railroad from Columbia river. The [illegible] of Nisqually is one of the best on Puget Sound, [illegible] is good. It is difficult of access, however, [illegible] and sail vessels will have to be tugged above the [illegible] of Seattle." This will be a big thing for Nisqually, [illegible] will only stick; but, good Lord, what a [illegible] and gnashin' of teeth there will be among the [illegible] of the terminus folks! But, really, who are the [illegible] and proprietors" who have thus decided the [illegible] question? Who are the rash men who [illegible] out over nine hundred of the most [illegible] eligible terminal sites on "the finest body of [illegible] in the world!"

OF THE FOURTH OF JULY COMMITTEES.—The [illegible] of Arrangements for the celebration of the [illegible] of July met last evening and received a verbal [illegible] from the Finance Committee that their labors so [illegible] had been very successful, and that our citizens had [illegible] more liberally than was anticipated. The [illegible] our Music have engaged the Mechanics', Occidental [illegible] City and Aurora bands, and will probably [illegible] the cavalry band at Vancouver. The Committee [illegible] invitation were authorized to advertise in the [illegible] the invitation to the people to celebrate [illegible] and to have printed and distributed circulars for [illegible]. It was decided [illegible] to spend at least $1,[illegible] Monday, July 5th, was chosen as the [illegible].

MILITARY ORDER.—The following is a copy of General Order No. 10, from Headquarters Department of the Columbia, issued June 1st, 1869:

1. Commanding officers of Posts in this Department, will take early measures for the appropriate observance of the approaching Anniversary of our National Independence, and on that day all drills, fatigues, or other military duties, not absolutely indispensable, will be suspended, and the troops allowed the greatest liberty consistent with the rules of discipline.

At posts supplied with the necessary guns and ammunition, the usual salutes will be fired, and officers stationed in the vicinity of cities or towns are recommended to co-operate with the citizens in commemorating the day.

Of the latter, twenty drunks, three peddling without license, three obstructing sidewalks, two fast riding, and one carrying concealed weapon; total, twenty nine. The collections during the month in city cases amounted to $161 45; Recorder's fees, $132; balance in favor of the city, $29 45. EASTERN OREGON.—A movement is on foot in Eastern Oregon and Washington Territory for a mass railroad convention, to be held at Umatilla.

Mr Copeland, who lives at the foot of the mountains, between Cottonwood and Russell creek, had a fine American mare killed by a stroke of lightning on Friday evening, the 21st ult.

The people of Umatilla are organizing an agricultural society. A meeting to complete the organization, by the adoption of a constitution and by-laws, will be held on the 1st Monday in July

HOTEL BUSINESS.—We learn that Messrs Sewall & Sprenger, of the Cosmopolitan, with Major Cook, have bought the furniture of the Western Hotel. As heretofore, however, Mr Sewall will have charge of the Cosmopolitan, while Messrs Sprenger and Cook will manage the Western. These gentlemen are all somewhat experienced in the hotel business, and will doubtless run their new purchase on a grade satisfactory to the public and their numerous friends.

APPLYING THE SCREWS.—We hear that the Oregon Central (West Side) railroad company has commenced applying the screws to the Washington county subscribers of stock and donations to the railroad. Since the cessation of work some of the people, in fact many of them, are disposed not to pay anything more, and the company proposes to test the question with them at law.

THE OREGON STAGE COMPANY.—The California and Oregon Stage Company, says the Unionist, are cutting down their expenses wherever practicable. The Company have dispensed with the services of one road agent, in consequence of which Mr. Thatcher's beat extends from Oakland, Douglas county, to Portland, instead of from Eugene to Portland.

U. S. TRANSPORTATION.—The contracts to transport from Wallula to Boise City 150,000 pounds Government freight; to Camp Three Forks, Owyhee, 200,000 pounds; to Fort Lapwai, 200,000 pounds; to Fort Colville, 200,000 have been awarded to Messrs. Jordan & Co. Walla Walla. They also obtained the contract to supply Fort Lapwai with 200,000 pounds of grain.

FIRE DEPARTMENT AND THE FOURTH.—At meetings held last evening, Columbian Engine Co. No 3 and Vigilance Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, voted to celebrate the Fourth. Nos. 1, 2 and 4 hold their meetings on Thursday evening, when it is understood they will decide to celebrate, and the Department will turn out entire.

FREIGHT FROM THE NORTH.—The steamer Geo. S. Wright brought over about one hundred and thirty tons coal for the Portland Gas Co. and twenty tons other freight.

LUNCH.—The Ladies of the Unitarian Society will spread a lunch from 12 to 2 o'clock P. M. to-day at the Washington Guard Armory. Everybody is invited.

TELEGRAPHIC MESSAGES.—There are telegraphic messages in the office at this city for C. E. Carvis and C. Miller, printer.

CITY TAXES.—The Marshal commenced on Monday to sell property of delinquents, for City taxes. He will continue the sale next Saturday.

LOADING WITH LUMBER.—The bark Melancthon is loading at Rainier with lumber for the San Francisco market

FAVOR.—We are indebted to Mr. Goodhue, Purser of steamer Telfair, for files of late Victoria papers.

TO SAIL.—The steamship Geo. S. Wright will sail for Victoria and Puget Sound at 6 o'clock this evening.

A SICK HORSE.—Put. Smith's valuable horse, Path finder, has been dangerously sick at Salem.

NOTICE.—The Corner Stone of the new Zion M. E. Church will be laid on Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at their ground on Third street, between H and I streets. The public are respectfully invited to attend. Services will be conducted by Rev. J. F. DeVore and others of the clergy. REV. J. LODGE, Pastor.

Attention, Washington Guard!—You are requested to meet at your Armory punctually at ½ 4 o'clock on Thursday morning for Company Parade.

By order of the Captain.

June 2, 1869. S. V. FULLER, O. S.

A distinguished Methodist Minister and prominent Temperance Lecturer once remarked that go where he would, from one end of the country to the other, he hardly ever failed to find PLANTATION BITTERS, and while he confessed the practice of using these Bitters too freely, he could not conscientiously say that he would discard them from the side-board, for he had himself experienced beneficial results from their use, and that from a long and close observation, he was convinced that when used moderately, and as a medicine exclusively they were all that was recommended. At the same time he warned his hearers not to pull the cork too often, for they were far too pleasant a tonic to trifle with.

THE RAILROAD TERMINUS.—By the arrival of the steamer Oriflamme, it will be positively known where the Railroad Terminus on the Sound will be established, and before long an army of men, equal to that of the grand Pacific Railroad, will be employed, who will build the road with all possible speed. The Depot, without further doubt, will be established at the well known house of KOHN & FISHEL, No. 91 Front street, where the finest, best and most stylish Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods and Dry Goods can always be had, at such low prices that the most crabbed purchasers must be pleased.

THE MAMMOTH OX!

TO THE PEOPLE OF OREGON LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS!

F. M. MORRIS AND W. C. AVERY,

BOTH OLD OREGONIANS AND HAVING, NO doubt,

THE LARGEST OX IN THE WORLD!

propose to the people of Oregon to take this Monster OX to the Atlantic States and exhibit the same as an Oregon production; and before leaving the State they wish every man, woman and child to see and in order to give them an opportunity, they will exhibit him in the principal towns on the Willamette, for the sum of 25 cents, children half price. Their object in doing this is to raise the necessary cash to pay transportation. All those who think it would have a tendency to wake up the people of the Eastern States to realize the fact that there is such a place as Oregon on the Pacific Slope, and that not only large cattle but every thing else is far in advance of the rest of the world, and that all that is required is industry and economy to realize a fortune in Oregon in a few years at most; and the best place to enjoy life after you have accumulated a fortune.

Business men make a note of this and remember: MONEY MAKES THE CA OO, and patronize accordingly.

The MAMMOTH OX has been removed to the corner of Morrison and Third streets, where he can be seen through the day and until 10 o'clock at night.

W. C. Avery will also have a supply of MRS. STIPP'S THORACIC BALSAM on hand. m27dtf

The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

Iron and the Tariff.

ie consumption of pig iron in the United es is 1,500,000 tons annually, only 100,000 of which are imported The duty is $9 in per ton So the market value of the 1,500,- tons manufactured at home is advanced $13,- 000 in gold by the duty imposed on the 1,000, tons. From this duty the Government reaps ,000, the Pennsylvania iron masters, $13,- 000. This is one illustration of the benefits rotection.

his paragraph is from the San Francisco ald. The argument it contains is one il- tration of the beauties of that Quixotic trine known as absolute free trade. An lysis of the subject touched upon above l show how utterly untenable and absurd the statements therein made

A ton of iron in Pennsylvania is worth from 5 to $60 according to quality. The labor l fuel necessary to produce a ton of iron of nmon grade cost $26. The cost of pro- cing charcoal iron which commands the hest figure above indicated is correspond- gly greater. In England the labor and fuel ployed in the production of a ton of com- n iron are worth from $14 to $16. The ty on the article is $9 per ton. Now is it t perfectly apparent, first, that the in- eased cost of producing iron in the United ates, as compared with the cost of produc- g it in England, goes mainly into the pock- s of the laborers instead of the coffers of e iron masters? And second, that if the ty is abolished, the wages paid to laborers ust either come down nearly one-half, or e iron furnaces must stand idle and the la- rers now engaged in the business be thrown t of employment? There is no escape from e conclusion reached by these figures. ith wages and domestic taxes at present tes, it actually costs more to produce iron in is country that it costs to produce it in ngland, with the tariff added; and this is e only reason why foreign iron can come nto this country at all. So that the $13,500,- 00 by which it is stated that the market va- e of iron in the United States is advanced y the tariff, is not added to the profits of the on masters, but is paid out as wages to la- orers and goes for Government taxes in all heir varied forms. If the free trade doctrin- ires cannot find better arguments than the bove to illustrate their principles they would better never try to present an argument.

An attempt has been made to manufacture iron in Oregon. The works have stopped, at east for the present, and it is uncertain when operations will be renewed. It has so far been found impossible to produce iron in Oregon at rates which would pay for the cap- tal invested. The prices of labor and fuel are such as to leave the proprietors no margin for profit; for even with the duty of $9 per ton, European iron comes into this market and competes with our own. Now what sort of prospect would we have for producing iron here in future if the duty on the imported article were abolished? We have just seen that foreign iron, though paying this duty, crowds domestic iron out of our own mar- ket and stops our furnaces; though there is ground for hope that with better and more adequate preparation for the work, the pro- duction of iron in our State will be resumed. But if the duty on the foreign article be abol- ished it is certain that the w rk of our iron beds will [illegible] locked up forever, or wages must come down to the starvation rates received by laborers in Europe. Are not these facts perfectly clear to every citizen of Oregon?

A large amount of money has been expend- ed in erecting the iron works at Oswego. This money has been distributed among laboring men. The p net of the furnace since the first blast [illegible] has been 2,475 tons. A large number of men have been employed in sup- plying the fuel and producing this iron, and good wages have [illegible] The value of this iron in our m ket is now about $48 per ton, though it has sometimes sold at a lower figure. If we put it at $40 as an average, we find that $100,000 in gold has already been saved the State by this [illegible]. Almost the whole of this money has been expended among the workmen; the [illegible] who invested their money have not had [illegible] returns to continue. Without the tariff it could have been impossible even to make this attempt to manufacture iron. But having the tariff, labor has profited by the investment. This illustration shows how absurd it is to assert that the tariff on iron is a contrivance to in- crease the profits of the iron masters and to oppress the labor of the country.

The New York Times is a paper which leans strongly towards free-trade theories; yet it is forced to confess that "free trade is an ideal far in advance of the times, which no country has at all approached as yet in its legislation." With a practical comprehension of the requir- ments of a country, the Times is also candid enough to admit that, "For many years to come we shall be compelled to have a very considerable tariff for revenue to meet the ex- penses of Government and for the payment of the public debt. Whatever may be our abstract ideas as to modes of taxation, the practical legislator must be aware that three hundred millions could never by any possi- bility be raised in this country by direct taxa- tion. We must have internal revenue and custom taxes, and the true point for reformers to aim at, is that these taxes should be laid with the least practicable injury to the pro- ductive powers of the country." In view of the needs of our Government and the wants of our laboring class it is Quixotic to shout for free trade. Our people want wages and our Government wants revenue. Both these ends must be secured.

In General.

Of the thirty-four "Conservative" or Dem- ocratic papers in Virginia, twenty-seven heart- ily support Walker, a Northern man and a Republican, for Governor. Only one paper of this class, the Petersburg Express, urges the ejection of the Constitution. That instru- ment will undoubtedly be adopted and Vir- ginia will be readmitted in December next."

A Victoria paper has an article on "inter- national intercourse," in which it very prop- erly says that the people of British Columbia of the adjoining territory of the United States should cultivate friendly feeling and live on neighborly terms. There is, indeed, no rea- son why they should look coldly and suspi- iously at each other. The spirit of good- fellowship should be cultivated. Nothing is more foolish than distrust and animosity be- tween two peoples so situated.

Wendell Phillips is a restless agitator and has been one of the most persistent advo- cates of the emancipation and enfranchise- ment of colored men; but he knows that when this is fully accomplished the whole work is done. He says very sensibly that "if the black race wish to attain social equality with the whites they must work out that re- sult by their own exertions." We hope this will reassure our timid Democratic brethren who are trembling lest "nigger equality" be forced on them.

The ceremony of decorating the graves of the fallen soldiers of the Republic was ob- served in nearly all parts of the country, and was very solemn and impressive. It is fit that a grateful people should pay this tribute to the memory of the heroic defenders who fell in terrible struggle to perpetuate this nation among the nations of the earth Thank Heaven, the country has not forgotten and never will forget the heroes who died in its cause, or the cause its heroes died for"

Of all the Democratic editors and publish- ers in the State, only one pays an income tax. The rest are all exempt and probably don't pay an aggregate Federal and State tax in any shape, directly or indirectly, to the amount of twenty dollars a year each unless the tax on whiskey catches some of them for more than this sum. Yet these are the gentlemen who spend all their time in crying out against the national debt and exclaiming in indignant tones that, "Our taxes are greater than we can bear!"

The Clerk of Clark county, W. T, pub lishes a statement from the official records showing that the expenditures of that county for the fiscal year ending in May, 1866, and May, 1867, when it was under Democratic management, amounted to $19,366 35; while the expenditures for the fiscal years ending in May, 1868, and May, 1869, during which time the county has been under Republican rule, has been but $7,878 69. Difference in favor of the Republican administration dur- ing two years, $11,787 66. This is what we would call a very valuable and striking "cam- paign document."

North Germany is pouring forth its hosts for America most liberally. The trains to Bre- men bring from one to two thousand emigrants for America per day. A gentleman who has just returned to Idaho from a visit to his old home in Bavaria informs an Owyhee paper that the people in Germany talk as freely of American institutions as they do of their own, and in fact know quite as much of the Con- stitution and history of the United States as the majority of American citizens Mothers talk to their little ones about America and tell them that sometime they will go there. The English language is also taught in a large number of the German schools in order to fit the rising generation for their future pilgrim- age to America. United States bonds and greenbacks are displayed in banker's win- dows, and the quotations are as eagerly sought after as in San Francisco or New York A fact worthy of note is that in their own country nearly all Germans are Republicans in politics.

THE APPOINTMENTS.—A few Republican journals have undertaken to criticise Presi- dent Grant's appointments and to hold him responsible for some mistakes for which he is in no sense accountable. It is undoubtedly true that in a few instances blunders have been made, but it is due to truth to say that they have generally proceeded from represent- ations made by politicians who have con- spired to overrule the President and reward their own favorites. Senators and Repre- sentatives have insisted on appointments which should not have been made, and the President is held responsible for everything done pursuant to their judgment and will, though it was impossible for him to know personally anything about the comparative fitness of applicants. In view of this conduct on their part the following remarks from the St. Louis Democrat are quite to the point:

> Up to this time, we are bound to say that if we were forced to choose between the President and the Republican leaders in Congress, and to deter mine which deserved the larger measure of confi dence and approval, we should say, unhesitating- ly, the President. He has done nothing to under- mine that faith in his fidelity which years of great service built up, while we have seen many of the foremost Republicans in both Houses trying their best to control him to personal and selfish ends. We have seen the Senate and House controlled by corrupt rings, and we have seen the strongest of them crumble before a few plain words from Grant. It does not seem to us that there is yet reason to assail such a President—the less, as we cannot see to what other power the people can be asked to transfer their confidence.

OREGON.

An Academy will be built by the Methodists at Ashland immediately.

Hon. O. Jacobs has received his commission as Associate Justice of Washington Territory.

All the merchants of Jacksonville offer for sale goods made at Ashland Mills in their own valley.

A few days ago Mr. Whitney, of Ashland, Jackson county, lost a little girl about one and a half years old, by drowning. The child acci dentally fell into a box in which there was some water, and when found was quite dead.

M. S. Laws writes from Kansas to the Unionist, making inquiries about the "character" of W. F. Boyakin, notorious in this State a few years ago. These are questions which it is useless to ask of any person in Oregon, for as to Boyakin's char acter, no one here ever knew he had any.

The Sentinel hears of a citizen of Jackson county, who having ascertained that some persons had cut a large amount of rails on Government land, immediately entered the fraction on which they were and now forbids the parties claiming the rails to remove them or otherwise trespass on his ground.

The wife of Dr. J. C. Shelton, of Salem, died on Monday. Her maiden name was Pauline Whitson. She was well known for her gentle de meanor and varied accomplishments. She was also a person of considerable literary acquire- ments and has printed in the newspapers of the State many pieces of merit and value.

A correspondent who has passed over the trail from Roseburg to Coos Bay writes that the road is a very rugged and difficult one, and that he considers the success of the company who are attempting to construct a wagon road as quite problematical. Their capital stock is $10,000, but he thinks that at least $150,000 will be required to build the road. The company have a land grant but he deems it of but little present value.

From the Jacksonville Sentinel. "On Monday evening a miner, named Henry Fellsinge, was discovered dead in his claim on Harris gulch, a short distance from Willow Springs The de ceased had been working alone in a low drift, and had apparently been caved on when coming out from the drift. It was thought that the unfortu- nate man had been dead several days. The faith ful dog of the poor fellow was watching a few feet from the body, having scraped out a bed in the soft ground, and was almost starving with hun ger, probably never having left the corpse to seek food."

Mr. Greeley announces that on or about the 1st of June the Tribune will begin "the publication in weekly chapters of a treatise, by its editor, on 'Political Economy;' designed more especially to elucidate and defend the policy of Protection to Home Industry. He expects to bring the work within the compass of twenty five to thirty chap ters of three or four columns each, and to treat the subject with simplicity and directness that few can read these essays without at least realiz ing that the Protective policy is either grossly misunderstood or deliberately misrepresented by the champions of Free Trade."

The New York Herald of May 15th states that the earnings of the Central Pacific Railway for April of this year, were $400,000. That is at the rate of $5,800,000 in gold per year, or ten per cent. interest on a gold capital of $58,000,000 The Central Pacific road did not cost the com pany, exclusive of subsidies, more than $20,000,- 000. They must, therefore, be realizing nearly 30 per cent. on their investment.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Pardon Refused.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Governor Hoffman de clines to interfere in the case of Mosier, of the Rochester murder, sentenced to be executed on Friday next. It seems that Mosier has uttered threats of killing more people in case he should regain his liberty.

Alabama Affairs

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 1.—Messrs Bingham, Longbridge and Eldridge, Congressional commit tee to investigate the charges against Judge Bus tell, reached here on Saturday night. Judge Busteil has granted them on Saturday night. Judge Busteil has granted them time until to-day until Wednesday, at 12 o'clock.

The Immigration State Convention meets to- morrow. A number of delegates have already arrived.

Californians in Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Charles Crocker, Superin tendent of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, Superintendent of a division of the same, Bar stow, of the Alta California, and other Californians arrived in this city yesterday. They took a trip on a special train of elegant cars to the Union stock yards as guests of Pullman, of the Palace Car Company, and other railroad officers.

Trains from the east daily, carrying an immense number of passengers bound for the Pacific coast, come regularly. Passengers arrive regularly in five days and a few hours from Sacramento.

The Tribune's New York special says at Ply mouth Church, yesterday, Henry Ward Beecher made an announcement of an entertainment of Cuban patriots, and took occasion to say if any people were ever justified in throwing off their government, the people of Cuba were justified in relieving themselves from the yoke of Spain Some people said it was an insurrection, but if so it was based on a righteous cause.

The Tribune's Washington special says the War Department have later advices from the plains showing that the quartermaster is forwarding sup plies with unusual rapidity Many military agents are en route for their posts. There is in creased confidence here that general trouble with Indians will be avoided.

A delegation of Georgians to-day called on the President and represented that a man has lately been appointed Assessor of Internal Revenue in Georgia, who had been a volunteer officer in the war and discharged for drunken and gross immor ality. It is believed the President has ordered his removal.

Bassett, Minister to Hayti, had an interview with the President yesterday regarding affairs in the West Indian Islands.

The opinion of the Attorney General on the rights of military commanders to take prisoners from civil authorities and try them by military courts will probably be considered by the Cabinet to day. It is held that Georgia is in the same condition as Texas, Mississippi and Virginia, so if the Attorney General decides that the military have the right to interfere it will probably put an end to lawlessness in all those States.

The National Division of the Sons of Temper ance of North America commence their annual session at Washington, June 9th. Delegates will be entertained by Maryland Lodge District.

Relations with England.

NEW YORK, June 1.—A Herald's Liverpool special says, in the interview between the Amer can Minister and the Liverpool Chamber of Com merce the latter presented an address congratu lating the Minister on his nomination, also on his safe arrival, expressing a desire that friendly rela tions might continue to be maintained between the two countries, and concluded by offering the services of the Chamber whenever they could be useful. Mr. Motley replied as telegraphed last night. The address from the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce was presented, which expresses the deep interest members felt in the United States, and the maintenance of cordial relations between the two countries. They trusted that sentiments of moderation and justice would animate all deal ings and questions be solved in accordance with mutual interests They furthermore alluded to the probable removal of the last vestige of English protective policy, and expressed the hope that Motley will be instrumental in bringing about reciprocal free trade between England and Amer ica. To this Motley repeated the sentiments for merly expressed. He furthermore stated that although the American nation was animated by an earnest desire for peace based upon justice, it has dispassionate regard for its honor and inter ests in its dealings with other countries. Also that while cherishing a desire for an extension of commerce, the Government at Washington could not go beyond its functions in the fiscal arrange- ments of America, they being in the hands of Congress. After exchanging personal introduc tions members of the delegation withdrew.

The New York Herald's special from St. Peters burg says the Emperor of Russia has signified his intention of sending an envoy extraordinary to Washington for the purpose of congratulating President Grant on his election and to express the value his majesty sets on the maintainance of friendly relations between the two countries.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, May 31.—In the House of Commons, to-night, Gladstone moved for a third reading of the bill for the disestablishment of the Irish Church.

A large number of petitions against the passage of the bill was presented, after which James Manner Holt, member from Northeast Lancashire, made, and Lord Elko, member from Lincolnshire, seconded the motion that the bill be rejected.

A long but interesting debate followed, result ing in the refusal of the House to accept Holt's proposition and the passage of the bill by a vote of 360 against 245.

The result of the vote was received with uproar and cheering from the ministrate benches, and the House shortly afterward adjourned.

WORMS, May 31.—The Protestant Congress, which assembled here to day, was attended by 20,000 persons, including representations from all the States in Germany. The Congress by vote resolved against the Papal exhortation to the return to the Roman church and in condemnation of the Encyclical letter The idea of the formation of a united German church is mooted.

Novels and Novelists

The effects of the excessive development of light literature upon the public generally have been very mixed. It is difficult to appreciate them quite impartially, but it is scarcely possible that we should be mistaken in regarding many of them as exceedingly bad. For one thing the reading of novels has been carried to a length which has greatly interfered with more intellectual and energetic amusements, such, for instance, as play-going and conversation, each of which require a certain degree of effort, whereas the reading of a novel is perhaps as near an approach to complete idleness of mind and body as can possibly be attained by a waking man. If a personification of idleness were for any purpose required, it might readily be found in the person of a novel reader thoroughly comfortably seated, and just sufficiently interested in his or her story to be in a state of perfect mental repose. A certain proportion of novels, no doubt, are real works of art, and are entitled to be criticised upon the footing on which works of art are criticised; but the proportion which books of this character bear to mere opiates, made to sell by people who happened to have a considerable gift in that direction, and whose name on the title is a valuable trade mark, is a very infinitesimal one. When a story [illegible] is warmly taken up by a large circle of his friends, who [illegible] up to the eyes for his genius and for his gentility, and, above all, for the bond of personal sympathy, which, as they say, he has established between the public and himself, it is impossible not to bear in mind two facts; the first is that all our most popular novelists, Mr. Dickens quite as much as any other, have used their genius not to produce works of art, but to produce an article of commerce, in enormous quantities, wholesale, retail, and for exportation. They make novels as a Nottingham manufacturer makes lace, and sell them by the yard. The second fact is that, though it is certainly a harmless, and even a laudable act, to labor industriously in any vocation whatever, bare industry in a calling which is at once pleasant and extremely profitable is hardly sufficient ground for intense personal admiration and [illegible]. If a man can go on spinning popular novels for thirty years together, and if repeated waterings do not altogether take the flavor out of the brew, so much the better for him. It is his luck to be the indisputable owner of a very profitable gift, just as it may be another man's luck to be the heir to a large estate or to an old-established business [illegible]; but it appears to us about as unreasonable and affected to go into ecstasies with him as it would be to burst into tears of irrepressible emotion at the announcement that a peculiarly energetic dry-salter had retired from business and bought a handsome estate in the Midland Counties. A popular novelist does his work, and is well paid for it, and there sure ought to be an end of the matter. In private life, of course, a distinguished writer may be unaffectedly popular and eminently deserving of popularity, nor would any one grudge their natural reward to the qualities which make people welcome to their neighbors, but it is surely strangely inappropriate to reward merits of this kind by public dinners and the raising of a [illegible]. What would be thought of a meeting at Exeter Hall, in the presence of reporters, for the purpose of talking a man over and over again, in all manner of forms of words, that the speakers had known him many years, and [illegible] very much? To send a lady a deputation to inform her that a large circle of admirers had unanimously carried a resolution, proposed by Mr. A. and seconded by Mr. B., that she was very handsome, highly accomplished, and remarkably sweet-tempered, would only be one degree more absurd.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Personal Appearance of the Father of a Former Washington Character.

Having shed the front of the Metropolitan every day, and sometimes peering in the doorway, for notice has been served upon him to keep out of the hotel, is a gray-haired, broken down old man, hobbling painfully along with a cane, for he has the gout, besides several kinds of rheumatism, who has been as well known in Washington for thirty years past as the most distinguished statesman in the land. This is the famous "Beau Hickman," or what there is of him. His eccentricities have furnished columns of paragraphs for newspapers all over the country, though to see him now one would hardly wonder how he ever came to get a national notoriety. He couldn't have done it anywhere but in Washington.

Take him anywhere else in the world and he would simply be considered a common nuisance and treated accordingly. He belongs to some old Virginia family (tradition says,) and [illegible] of it some thirty years ago, and [illegible] money by the style he [illegible] that the Virginia springs and [illegible]. He boasts of having [illegible] vicinity with [illegible] the past who [illegible]. He was in his [illegible] te and patronizing [illegible] ly with those days of [illegible] entertaining [illegible] slight [illegible] of it [illegible]. He is a wiry, hale military cloak over his [illegible] his hat is of a [illegible] brushed always, and an eye-glass dangles in front of him from a ribbon. There are several little points about him that show the dilapidated dandy.

His custom for years was to collect a dollar apiece from all Congressmen and those who had secured Government positions in Washington, on their first arrival at the capital. He only asks for a quarter now, and is ready to take anything that is offered, even a three cent piece. He mourns over a degenerated republic, says there are no men of brains at Washington any more. He leans against a pillar of the hotel, and smiles sorrowfully on our great American statesmen as they [illegible] Eggleston, Strader and the rest—and matters [illegible] and bitter. Poor old Beau Hickman! He ought to be pensioned and laid away, for he is about the only link that connects Washington present with Washington past.—Washington Correspondence Cincinnati Times.

The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands affected by Tobacco, and through it thoroughly cleaning the blood system and thus allaying the craving for Tobacco. No more hankering for Tobacco after using Orton's Preparation. Recollect it is warranted.
The time taken to allay all desire for Tobacco by the use of the Preparation varies slightly in different persons, the average time being about five days. Some have no desire for Tobacco whatever after using the Preparation Two days.
The Health and Purse of every Tobacco user in the country calls loudly, ABANDON THE USE OF TOBACCO.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession
We, the undersigned, hereby certify that we have used Orton's Preparation for the purpose of destroying the appetite for Tobacco, and can assure those who are suffering from this habit that Orton's Preparation will certainly destroy the appetite for Tobacco quickly and permanently, and without any bad effect upon the health, and without creating an appetite either for the Preparation or any substitute.

From Samuel Cassidy, Editor Journal & Argus:
PETALUMA, CALIFORNIA, Dec. 14, 1868.
For about twenty years I had used Tobacco in its various forms, and for the past eight years had been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that the excessive use of this narcotic was seriously impairing my health, I determined if possible to check myself of the habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite for Tobacco, I sent to Portland, Me., for a box of the medicine, which I received through the mail on the 17th of November. A month has not elapsed and yet the medicine has effectually relieved me from any yearning or desire to use Tobacco in any form. The Preparation is not more difficult or unpleasant to take than to commence chewing gum. I conscientiously believe the Preparation will have the promised and desired effect in every instance where it is given a fair trial. Upon that belief and from an honest desire to assist those who wish to break away from the slavish appetite for Tobacco I offer this testimonial.
SAMUEL CASSIDY.

Beware of Counterfeits and all articles purporting to be like this, of the same name or otherwise. The great popularity of Orton's Preparation has induced unprincipled persons to attempt palming upon the public counterfeit and inferior articles. Purchasers will please order directly from the Proprietor, or his duly authorized Agents.
The price of Orton's Preparation is $2 per box, or three boxes for $5, sent by mail to any part of the country securely sealed from observation, with passage paid on receipt of price.
How to send money by mail.—Enclose the amount in a letter, seal carefully, register the letter and take a receipt for it of your Postmaster. Money sent by mail as above directed at my risk. Address

TURN VEREIN PICNIC.—According to announcement, the annual excursion and picnic of the Portland Turn Verein took place yesterday. At 9 o'clock the steamer Varuna took the advance guard of the Turners, with a few lunch up the advance guard of the Turners, with a few lunch baskets; at 10 o'clock, about four hundred people went up, and thereafter, at each trip of the boat, great numbers took passage. At 2 o'clock P. M. there were probably not less than 1,500 people on the grounds—the largest number present at one time, though there must have been near 2,000 visitors in the aggregate, during the day. Shortly after the arrival of the 10 o'clock boat, the exercises were opened by an oration by Mr. Wm. Kapus, late of the U. S. army, and formerly a member of the Turn Verein of Portland. The oration being delivered in German, we are not able to give a report or even a fair synopsis of it. The speaker recalled to the minds of those present the progress which the Turn Vereins had made since eleven years ago, when they celebrated their first May fest at Portland. Then they were a handful of young men, and the nation lost an arm; now they are strong not only in numbers but in social standing. He alluded to the progress which the city of Portland and the State of Oregon had made since that first May fest, in all of which the Turners had been identified, and the sight it all constituted a thing in which not only the Turners, but the German-American population might take just pride. Then Portland was a remote village, distant months from the East, and weeks from the Atlantic States. Now great steamships upon the Atlantic, and the trans-continental railroad had brought us within a few days of the birth-place of our birth. Then the country was in part in bonds; now every man in the United States may proudly boast that he is free! In all the progress of the country, the speaker said, he had taken a lively interest and borne an honorable part. They had also borne a marked part in the struggle in America for the perpetuation of those principles which had attracted them, with the fellow Germans, across the Atlantic. Leaving this topic to be concluded by referring to the progress of the Turners and within the last few years, toward a better form of Government. The address was frequently interrupted by applause, and after its conclusion, was cordially and approvingly by most of those who listened to it. Whether the oration the Turners and guests betook themselves to the amusements of the day—athletic exercises, target shooting by ladies, foot races by the boys, sack races, etc., etc. Mrs. Bloom took the first prize for target shooting—an elegant silver card case—among twenty-five or thirty competitors. In the sack race, won by seven or eight, Johnny Kearney was the lucky one, and took as prize a pair of gold shirt studs. Alex. Bloom won the foot race and received as prize one of Chandler's best hats. There were some other contests which we did not obtain an account of the results.

Dinner was served on the ground enjoying themselves to the top of their bent, till late in the afternoon, when all of them only leaving by the last chance, at 7 o'clock. The whole affair was conducted by the Turners in a manner which reflects great credit upon them, and we dare say that there were extremely few of those who did not freely acknowledge themselves indebted to them for a happy day.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—Miss Dorothy L. Dix, who has been for many years distinguished for her works of philanthropy, is a passenger for this place by the steamer Panama, now two days out from San Francisco. The Tribune has the following "personal" concerning Miss Dorothy L. Dix, whose reformatory labors in behalf of the insane and criminal of the East-ern States have earned her a world-wide fame, many years which will be in this city overland from the East, a few days hence. To her efforts in behalf of these classes are due many modern reforms in the State institutions of the East. She has visited every State in the Union east of the Rocky Mountains, in connection with her work. During the war under the direction of the Sanitary Commission, Miss Dix exercised a supervision of the hospitals established for the care of sick and wounded soldiers. She will, no doubt, revisit all the State institutions on this coast, the last one to which she has heretofore devoted her attention. Miss Dix is a sister to Gen. John A. Dix, late Secretary of War. She was born in Worcester, Mass., and is now sixty years old. The day after her arrival, she paid a visit to the State Normal School."

MARINE.—We get the subjoined items from the Astoria Marine Journal: The Oregon and California Stage Company are repairing their coaches and putting them in running order preparatory to putting them on the road between Eugene City and Portland.....Deputy Sheriff F. A. Smith, of Douglas county, brought Wm. Ross to the Penitentiary. Ross was convicted at the last term of the Douglas County Circuit Court, which met in June, 1868, and was sentenced to two years imprisonment. Ross is the man who assaulted the stage driver, Yesterday, at the Salem Flouring Mill Company's mill, the saw, in going through a log, struck an iron spike, which broke out five of the saw teeth. The pieces flew in every direction, one of them narrowly missing the sawyer.

—The increase of travel through this valley is as much as anything else the growth of the country, and the increase of business. For instance, the boats on the west side of the river were traveled very little two years ago. Now Jamison's stages, run twice a week to the Valley villages, carry large numbers of passengers, some of them citizens on business and others, looking after the country and looking after its resources. There is no more pleasant drive at this season of the year than from Portland through Washington and Yamhill counties. The fields are green, the skies are clear and the air is fragrant. The country is pretty as a picture, and everybody is at work.

ARRIVAL OF THE GEO. S. WRIGHT.—The steamship Geo. S. Wright, Langdon, commander, arrived yesterday morning from Victoria.

Left Victoria Thursday, May 27th at 3 P. M.

THE TERMINUS.—The Commercial says: The log of several members, came down to Salem on Monday, from up the valley and took the train for Monticello; from whence they go to Lewis River, W. T. They are seeking for that pot of gold which is at the foot of the rainbow—that prospective "big thing."

HE IS IN LUCK.—Mr. M. H. Abbott, senior editor of the Albany Democrat, withdrawn from the Albany Democrat. Mr. V. Watters, the junior editor, has recently been elected Recorder of the city of Albany, to fill a vacancy. Both of these gentlemen are unquestionably on the high tide of luck.

ARRIVAL.—The Rt. Rev. Bishop Morris took passage Saturday per steamship Continental, from San Francisco for Portland.

THE TERMINUS.—By the arrival of the steamer Panama, it will be positively known where the Pacific Terminus on the Sound will be established, and before long an army of men, equal to that of the grand Pacific Railroad, will be employed, who will build the road with all possible speed. The Depot, without further delay, will be established at the well known house of SCHUYLER FISHEL, No. 91 Front street, where the finest, latest and most stylish Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods and Hats can always be had, at such low prices that the most crabbed purchasers must be pleased.

VOLUNTEER TESTIMONY.—The following recommendation coming from a source of such well known and indisputable character, that it requires no comment beyond its perusal:

I have given Kane's Imperial Condensed Soap a fair and impartial trial, and am satisfied it will do all that is claimed for it. I washed three dozen white shirts using half a bar of soap. It did its work well, with no rubbing, and I cheerfully recommend it as a Good Washing Compound I ever used.

The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

MONDAY MORNING, MAY 31 1869

"Forward March!"

The Salem Press pretends to protest against the jacobinical utterances of the Herald and her repudiation papers in this State, and says that the constant agitation of this subject can have no other effect than "the disruption, division and defeat of the Democratic party." The agrarian tendencies and jacobinical doctrines of these journals are reprobated in severe language, yet the Press in the same article goes about as far as any of them in advocating repudiation. After declaring that "the Democratic party owes its overthrow and subsequent successive defeats to the untempered zeal and egotistical pretensions of this superficial class of politicians, who furnish to the opposition its chief if not sole resource for perpetuating its own rule through the popular prejudices thereby engendered against the Democracy and its designs," the Press in the same article manifests the same "untempered zeal" and the same lawless intentions it is protesting against, by saying:

> These bonds here alluded to are a fraud upon the American people; they were issued for three times the amount of value received at a time when the credit of the Government would have commanded all the money demanded by its necessities at reasonable rates of interest; and we have a right to demand an equitable adjustment of this debt, without imposing special burdens upon the tax payers and conferring special privileges upon a favored class of Government creditors.

This lets the Press into the ranks of the repudiationists and leaves the Yamhill Courier the only Democratic paper in the State which opposes this iniquity and dishonor. The "equitable adjustment" which the Press talks about is, of course, only a soft name for repudiation.

The falsehoods in the paragraph above quoted are about as numerous as we ever saw in the same amount of writing from Brown's pen. None of the bonds were issued for three times the amount received by the Treasury; but their validity would not be at all impaired if they had been issued for forty times the amount. The depreciation of the public credit was one of the circumstances incident to the condition of the country, and the great premium on gold was owing entirely to the uncertainty as to the ability of the Government to maintain itself and keep its obligations. The depression of our securities was due entirely to the risk run in taking them. It is not true that "the credit of the Government would have commanded all the money demanded by its necessities at reasonable rates of interest." Every one knows that the credit of the Government was a low ebb; and that the Democratic papers at the time were declaring the country hopelessly bankrupt and asserting that it could never meet its obligations. If the credit of the country was so good why did the Democratic Secretary of the Treasury in January, 1861, three months before a gun was fired, find it necessary to pay twelve per cent. cent. per annum for a loan of several millions to meet the wants of the Government? Two months before that time the six per cent. stocks of the United States commanded a large premium; but the public credit became so impaired by the threatened rebellion that long before the war had actually commenced the Government had to pay the exorbitant rate of twelve per cent. for money to carry on its operations. Yet the Press says, either ignorantly or dishonestly, that, in the crisis of the rebellion, the Government might have obtained money at "reasonable rates of interest" had it been so disposed, and that the debt is "a fraud on the American people" because bonds were issued for more more than the gold value received for them. Let us know whether this twelve per cent. Democratic loan is a fraud too.

In behalf of the Republican party we greatly [illegible] Administration organs will succeed in forcing their doctrines on the Democratic Convention. The Republicans want no [illegible] to go before the people appealing to their honesty and fidelity on this issue. Repudiation is popular just now with the Democracy, but so was secession in 1861. Not more than one Democratic paper in Oregon protested against secession. Only one will grumble at repudiation. The fate of Stultz & Co. will be the fate of repudiators. We therefore join with the Herald in exclaiming, "Forward, March!" The precipice is before you. "Forward, March!"

A Journey to Utica.

To our statement that large amounts of national securities are held by persons of moderate means, the Herald sneeringly replies:

> We don't think it would do our colemporary any harm to travel around a little. He might learn something.
> If we should set out to travel to obtain information on this subject, probably we could not do better than to visit Utica, New York, and consult the man whom the Herald and the whole Democratic party supported last year for the Presidency. For we remember that this great Democrat said in a speech at Albany, delivered about a year ago:
> The savings banks of this State, (New York,) which are the depositaries of the poor or of persons of limited means, hold about $60,000,000 of government bonds. The whole amount in trust, will not fall below $200,000,000. If we look into other States, we shall see that only a small share of these bonds are held by men known bet capitalists but they belong in fact, if not in form, to the business men, the active and the laboring men of society. The destruction of these securities would make a wide-spread ruin and distress which would reach into every workshop and every district, however humble.

We suggest now that it might not do the editor of the Herald any harm to travel around a little;" or, if he cannot travel, that it might be as well for him to try and get some information by reading undoubted authorities. But perhaps he will answer that no information is necessary for one who conducts an incendiary, jacobinical, repudiation newspaper.

The Presbyterian Reunion.

It seems altogether probable that a reunion of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church will now be speedily accomplished. The basis of reunion has been agreed upon in both Assemblies, and will now be submitted to the several Presbyteries of each branch for ratification. The unanimity with which the Assemblies have adopted the plan for reunion indicates that there will be little opposition to the measure in the Presbyteries. The division of the Church took place in 1837. For several years there had been two parties, differing from each other in regard to the construction of the standards of the Church. From year to year they assumed toward each other a more opposing attitude, and finally at the meeting of the General Assembly in 1837 an intense conflict took place which resulted in adjudging several synods as no longer constituent parts of the Presbyterian Church. Since that time the distinctions of "Old School" and "New School" have been known. The former has always been the more numerous body. It numbered 292,857 communicants in 1860, and the New School the same year numbered 134,931. It is probable that the present movement will result in uniting in one body all the various branches of Presbyterians in the country.

In General

Spain's credit is not good. A short time ago she put upon the market a loan of $50,000,000, and out of this she realized $14,000,000, and that at a very high rate of interest. We suppose our Democratic papers would say that this debt ought to be repudiated.

The Marysville (Cal.) Appeal very pointedly says that "the Republican who becomes offended at his party because of his removal, after a reasonable number of years in office, is an ungrateful, selfish and unprincipled citizen, and the sooner out of the party the better for it."

The Herald mourns because negro suffrage is to be forced on the people of Oregon "contrary to their wishes and interests." As there are probably twenty-five colored men in the State who are to be enfranchised, the "interests" of our people will indeed receive a heavy blow!

We see that some of the Democratic papers are quoting articles from the OREGONIAN to prove that Garfield was a secessionist in 1862. This is a very ill-advised maneuver. Don't they know that if their party should be convinced that Garfield actually was a secessionist, about two-thirds of them would be certain to vote for him?

It appears that more money will be required to bring the Central Pacific Railroad up to the requirements of a first class road than will be needed to do the same for the Union Pacific. This is contrary to the statements heretofore made. The Union Pacific has been represented as the more imperfect. But these representations have emanated from the California papers which have been boasting of the superior excellence of their own part of the road.

We learn that a weekly mail service will be commenced in July on the route from Portland to Dayton by way of Taylor's Bridge and East Chehalem. This will supply a loss long felt. The people in all the counties on the west side of the Wallamet river are exceedingly anxious to secure the daily mail from Portland to Corvallis. The route should run by Hillsboro, Forest Grove, North Yamhill, McMinnville, etc. The people interested may be assured that a strenuous effort will be made to secure the service.

Much has been said about the manner in which the suffrage amendment has been ratified in Indiana; but the Republicans of that State have excellent Democratic precedent for what they have done. In 1857 Messrs. Bright and Fitch, Democrats, were elected United States Senators for Indiana, though there was no quorum of either branch of the Legislature participating in the joint convention. Upon this excellent Democratic precedent the Republicans of Indiana have entirely estopped their opponents from objecting in the matter just decided.

The Sacramento Union, San Francisco Times and many other California papers are declaring that the Pacific railroad will make it necessary for California to adopt greenback currency, unless demand notes, payable in gold, are issued by the Government which can be used for the purposes of exchange and which will obviate the loss incident to converting greenbacks into gold. The Sacramento Bee is certain that greenbacks must be adopted, as the result of railroad communication with the East. On the other hand the Bulletin asserts that gold will hold its own as the regular currency of the Pacific coast.

Rhode Island hesitates to ratify the suffrage amendment. The House has postponed consideration of the subject till January next. The objection does not arise from any feeling of opposition to negro suffrage, for colored men already vote in that State on the same terms as the whites. It arises from the aristocratic and unrepublican form of the present Constitution of Rhode Island, which allows no person to vote unless he is possessed of $134. Thus Rhode Island disfranchises white and colored men alike, unless they have a requisite amount of money. The fifteenth amendment ought therefore be ratified to enfranchise the white men of Rhode Island. That State must yield and shall yield, whether she votes for the amendment or not. She has shown an additional reason why that measure should become the law of the land.

THE WEST.

Bullion is now shipped to the East from White Pine.

The imports for the present year at Victoria have fallen off about forty per cent. as compared with last year.

New potatoes, turnips, green peas, ripe cherries and strawberries have appeared in the Victoria market.

The California Steam Navigation Company have reduced the fare for deck passage between Sacramento and San Francisco, from $2 to $1 50.

The Central Pacific Railway Company regularly charge $70 gold per ton per one thousand feet for freighting sawed lumber from Truckee to Elko.

The Board of Trade of Southern Colorado have resolved upon the publication of the statistics of that region of country in pamphlet form, for general circulation.

The miners of Grass Valley, (Cal.), have leagued together to the number of some 350 to resist the use of Giant Powder and single-hand drilling in the mines.

The men who built the last ten miles of the Central Pacific Railroad will receive a handsome and costly testimonial in parchment from the company. They declined to accept $500 apiece instead.

Quinn's River Valley has never been properly appreciated by parties seeking to make themselves homes. Some of the finest land for producing grain and vegetables to be found in Nevada are in that valley.

One of the inmates of the Stockton Insane Asylum, whose paintings would do credit to a sane artist, is retouching the old and painting new scenery for the stage of the mimic theater of that institution. When the work is completed, an entertainment will be given.

We are informed, says the Chico Enterprise, that negotiations by the Central Pacific Railroad Company for the purchase of the Marysville and Oroville road having failed, they have commenced a final survey of a road from Marysville to Chico, and are to commence its construction at once.

A miner at Idaho City named Daniel Bowman was almost instantly killed on the 20th inst. while digging in the bed rock, by a huge piece which fell and caught him just below the ribs. No one witnessed his death, but he was discovered in a few minutes after the fatal accident must have taken place.

A new map of the territory between the Mississippi river and the Pacific ocean will soon be issued under the supervision of General Humphreys, the Chief of the Engineer Corps. Commissioner of Agriculture Capron is making arrangements with the London Indian Museum for an exchange of plants and seeds of the United States for those of British India.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Soldiers' Graves Decorated.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Thousands of people laden with baskets of flowers and a large number of wagon loads of flowers have gone to Arlington to-day to participate in decorating the soldiers graves. All business is suspended.

BOSTON, May 29.—The flags are at half mast, minute guns are firing and business is mostly suspended. The graves of soldiers are being decorated.

Karrageut and Sherman will be present at the Peace Jubilee.

COLUMBUS, O., May 29.—Business is suspended to-day, and an immense crowd is at the Cemetery to participate in the ceremony of decorating the soldiers' graves.

PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—The flags of the Custom House and Government buildings are at half mast, and nearly one thousand soldiers' orphans formed in procession and marched to Concert Hall where appropriate ceremonies took place.

CINCINNATI, May 29.—To-day was observed in Detroit, Providence, Philadelphia, Washington, New York, Boston, and many other cities throughout the country by decorating the soldiers' graves. Citizens generally turned out in large numbers. Bells were rung and minute guns fired. Speeches, prayers, etc., comprised the services. In many places the principal services occur to-morrow.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The city to-day presented the appearance of Sunday, thousands having left to attend the solemn ceremonies of the decoration of the graves of the fallen heroes at Arlington. The Departments were all closed but one subordinate official being left in attendance at the White House. The President, accompanied by Mrs. Grant and Mr. Pont left shortly before noon to attend the ceremonies. The road to Georgetown and through Germantown and across aqueduct bridge to the Cemetery was thronged at an early hour, and the carriage way was filled with vehicles of all descriptions. The street cars were literally packed all the morning. A battalion of marines were on the grounds and visited all points of interest, and stopped for a while among the graves. Before 11 o'clock the crowd was immense, and every moment brought additions. The greatest point of attraction was the tomb of the unknown. The monument erected to the memory of the unknown stands to the front and right and around it was erected a canopy of American flags, supported by six upright posts. The canopy was beautifully trimmed with wreaths of evergreens and with small flags and streamers of parti colored cambric. The monument is a solid block of granite about eight feet square and six feet high. On either corner is placed an iron twelve pounder and between these guns is piled a stack of balls, such as used in the guns. Around the monument were tastefully hung beautiful wreaths of evergreens, laurels and choice roses. The effect was elegant. The inscription on the monument is as follows: "Recorded in the archives of their country: its grateful citizens honor them as of their noble army of martyrs; they rest in peace. September, A. D. 1866." Beneath this stone repose the bodies of two thousand one hundred and eleven unknown soldiers, gathered after the war from the field of Bull Run and the route to the Rappahanock.

Long before the commencement of the exercises a dense crowd was in front of the stand, which was decorated with evergreens, flowers and a profusion of national flags. About one o'clock President Grant and family, General Sherman, Members of the Cabinet, Foreign Ministers, and other prominent officials took seats within. A salute was fired to indicate the commencement of the ceremonies. Commodore Samuel A. Duncan, Grand Commander of the Army of the Potomac, called the assembly to order, when the Marine Band played the Miserere; prayer by Rev. Dr. Newman followed, and an ode to the dead having been sung the general order of the Grand Army of the Republic, General Logan, ordering observance of the day, was read. The general exercises of the day were: singing, "God bless our native land;" a poem, "Our Martyrs," written for the occasion, by Francis Dehais Janver; song, "Sleep well ye heroes brave," sung by the Washington Sangerbund. Hon. S. S. Fisher delivered an address in commemoration of the deeds of the dead, after which the orphans gathered around the monument to the unknown dead and prayer was offered; a requiem was sung, and the orphans sung, "Shall we know each other?" and "The children of the fallen brave;" the procession then formed and passed into the National Cemetery, where the decorations of graves took place. Two bands were stationed in opposite sections of the cemetery and played dirges while the graves were being strewn with flowers. The ceremonies concluded by firing a signal gun, and the people gathering round a small stand in the cemetery, where the band played Rossini's Stabat Mater and the Chaplain of the Department of the Potomac, pronounced a benediction. The ceremonies were interesting and of an affecting character. There were on the grounds thousands of colored people, including a company of colored Zouaves. Many of them, like the whites, participated in the decoration of the graves.

Canadian News.

MONTREAL, May 29.—The people in the valley of Ottawa are badly off for seeds. Agents have been appointed to go through the dominion to purchase, especially oats and hay. They are $45 per ton; straw, $20 per ton. Grain is so scarce for freight that ships are loading their cargoes at Quebec with timber. The military authorities of Canada have received orders to send to England all obsolete arms and ammunition in store.

Miscellaneous.

ST. LOUIS, May 29.—The St. Louis type foundry caught fire to-day and was injured to the extent of $40,000 to $50,000.

CHICAGO, May 29.—A severe tornado yesterday afternoon almost completely destroyed the town of Shipman, Macoupin county, Illinois. Passengers by the train report nearly every building in the place blown down. Nothing is yet received concerning the loss of life or amount of damage. The track of the tornado is only about a quarter of a mile wide.

RICHMOND, Va., May 29.—Albert Tyler, colored, was executed at noon to day for poisoning Hubbard, a colored woman, whose child Tyler had attempted to outrage, and who threatened to prosecute him. Tyler confessed the crime on the scaffold. A large crowd was present.

BOSTON, May 29.—The Harvard Boat Club has received a challenge from the London Rowing Club for a match during their visit to England, and offer of honorary membership and the free use of their boat house and club room.

BALTIMORE, May 29.—Thos. Bondolin, aged 73, one of the brave men in the Garrison at Fort McHenry, when it was bombarded by the British forces in 1814, died yesterday.

Of the $16,000 robbed from Harnden's Express, $12,000 has been recovered.

WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA, May 29.—Additional particulars of the dreadful storm yesterday show the destruction to be far greater than at first supposed. The destruction to vineyards is immense. Those least injured cannot be made productive for years, and in a majority of cases are utterly ruined. Up Wheeling creek valley the destruction is enormous. Many sheep and lambs were killed in the fold and wheat and corn cut close to the ground. A number of accidents to individuals are reported, some of which will prove serious. The town of West Liberty is reported in ruins. Hail stones to the depth of two feet lie in the streets.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Postmaster Eastman to-day appointed a colored man as one of the principal clerks in the Postoffice.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS

Farragut has been chosen Grand Commodore of the "Order of the Loyal Legion."

House rents are reported to have declined one third in Brooklyn, the supply of dwellings being in excess of the demand.

In reorganizing the special mail service of the country the Postmaster General has reduced the force employed and diminished the expenditures from $150,000 to $100,000.

The present circulation of Mr. Bonner's New York Ledger exceeds 300,000 copies. In Chicago alone one dealer sells 22,000 and another 2,200, besides those sent to mail subscribers.

Chief Justice Chase, in an opinion delivered on a case in appeal on the 12th of May, at Richmond, informally recognized the constitutionality of the division of the State of Virginia.

Many of the most prominent merchants and planters of Alabama have signed a call for a convention to meet at Montgomery on the 1st of June to organize an immigration company.

The report of the adjutant general of the Grand Army of the Republic, presented at the encampment at Cincinnati, shows that there are in the United States 27 departments and 2,050 posts of that order.

The Independent says that the First Baptist Church of New York, now in course of construction, will be one of the finest in the country. The baptistry will be of white marble, and half of the front made of plate glass, so that the ordinance itself and not merely the standing in the water of the candidate and administrator can be seen.

The New York historical society, at its last meeting, came into possession of a Bible brought over in the Mayflower by one of the Pilgrims, and a book that once belonged to Maj. Gen. Israel Putnam. Both the relics are well authenticated.

Admiral Porter denies positively that he and Mr. Borie have ordered Admiral Hoff to send a vessel to the Bay of Samana to make the preliminary surveys for the establishment of a coaling depot there. On the other hand, those interested in St. Domingo affairs are positive that such orders have been transmitted and will be obeyed. The Cuban and St. Domingo interests here appear to be identical, and they do not abandon hope of ultimate success.

The Cincinnati Gazette of the 12th May says: "The Legislature of Ohio adjourned Friday. In 1868 we had a Democratic Legislature. In 1868 we have had another. This is often as the State can bear it, but in ten years a new generation comes upon the stage of political action, and mankind are prone to forget. When we know the amount of money expended by this Legislature, we shall see the need of a ten years' interval for recovery.

Once in a while the Congressional Globe contains a little really interesting reading. Thus we learn from it that in the present House there are one hundred and thirty one lawyers, seven editors, ten merchants, seven bankers, eight manufacturers, fifteen farmers, two planters, five general business men, one coal operator, two lumbermen, two real estate agents, two physicians, two railroad managers, three clergymen, one printer, and one agriculturist.

Johnny Clem, of Ohio, the famous drummer boy who dropped his drum for a musket at Chickamauga, and shot a rebel colonel who demanded his surrender, and was subsequently wounded in another engagement, has been appointed a cadet at West Point by the President. He was but twelve years of age when he beat his drum, and is scarcely seventeen now. He was cordially greeted by the President, Gen. Logan and the Secretary of War, all of whom knew him well in the army.

The St. Louis Academy of Science, which has long been the repository of valuable collections illustrating the natural history of archæology of the West, lost the greater part of its treasures by the fire recently. The collection included a part of the specimens of the old Western Academy of Science, dissolved twenty five years ago, together with the fruits of more careful investigators who have recently worked in that productive field. The loss sustained by the Academy can never be wholly replaced.

The New York Times says: "While a certain class of superficial observers have been content to style New Orleans as 'going down,' her population has been steadily on the increase, every year finding the roll of her inhabitants ten per cent. more numerous than the previous twelve months. Houses to accommodate a population of twenty-five thousand have been built within her borders and suburban lines since the war, and every element of prosperity is exhibited in her history for the past three years, and yet New Orleans is going down. Not yet awhile."

The Chicago Post says of the great Pacific Railway celebration in that city: "Nothing was wanting to make the noise created yesterday by the bells, the whistles, the gongs, the anvils, and the cannons the greatest noise ever heard before in Christendom, except the presence of George Francis Train. Fortunately, George Francis arrived and set up his bray in the very nick of time. Hence the noise made in Chicago yesterday over the Union Pacific Railroad celebration was the most tremendous noise ever before heard in any part of the world."

Says the Springfield (Mass.) Republican: The returns of the assessors to the internal revenue department show that the income lists throughout the country, for last year, are larger than have been returned for any previous year. In many districts, if not generally, it is also noticed that the increase is in the smaller incomes, while those of the more wealthy men have fallen off. This certainly speaks well for the general weal of the country, and seems to disprove, in part, at least, the statement so often made and elaborately proved, that the rich are growing richer and the poor poorer.

The Cincinnati Gazette sarcastically says of Alaska: The only difficulty we have found in utilising Alaska is, that it is too rich. In our dispatches it is stated that Commodore Meade reported a new harbor at the northwest end of Kaw Island, capacious enough to hold all our whaling fleet, which would be very convenient if our whaling fleet wanted to go there; and a splendid site for a military post, which is very opportune, for we were rather suffering for sites for military posts; and also that fresh fields of coal have been discovered at Kootz Naboo, one seam being five feet thick, and that it is believed that Kootz Naboo is a vast field of coal; but "owing to its resinous quality, the coal is considered dangerous on shipboard." Too rich to be safe! Thus Alaska is overdoing it in every respect. As soon as we discovered her the isothermal line got twisted so as that all the valuable fur animals shed their coats. And now that we have discovered that she is all coal, it turns out that it is so rich that it is explosive.

PEOPLE SHAKE—not with fear as to the future of Portland, but with the Ague, which can be cured in six hours and no return of the chills or dumb ague or its kindred ills, by using our celebrated and sure South Carolina Ague Cure. It is sold at the reasonable price of $1 00 per bottle. Call at "The Oregon Dispensary" for your HEALING MEDICINES, for they are all pure, fresh and cheap and will be vouched for by the most eminent of the Medical Faculty in the city. Everybody patronizes the "Oregon Dispensary" in consequence of the above fact, and it requires five assistants to attend to the wants of our patrons.

LORYEA & KALLENBERG,
73 First street, Portland.

A distinguished Methodist Minister and prominent Temperance Lecturer once remarked that go where he would, from one end of the country to the other, he hardly ever failed to find PLANTATION BITTERS, and while he condemned the practice of using these Bitters too freely, he could not conscientiously say that he would discard them from the side-board, for he had himself experienced beneficial results from their use, and that from a long and close observation, he was convinced that when used moderately, and as a medicine exclusively they were all that was recommended. At the same time he warned his hearers not to pull the cork too often, for they were far too pleasant a tonic to trifle with.

THE MAMMOTH OX!

TO THE PEOPLE OF OREGON: LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS!

F. M. MORRIS AND W. C. AVERY,

BOTH OLD OREGONIANS AND HAVING, NO doubt,

THE LARGEST OX IN THE WORLD!

propose to the people of Oregon to take this Monster OX to the Atlantic States and exhibit the same as an Oregon production; and before leaving the State they wish every man, woman and child to see and in order to give them an opportunity, they will exhibit him in the principal towns on the Willamette, for the sum of 25 cents, children half price. Their object in doing this is to raise the necessary cash to pay transportation. All those who think it would have a tendency to wake up the people of the Eastern States to realize the fact that there is such a place as Oregon on the Pacific Slope, and that not only large cattle but every thing else is far in advance of the rest of the world, and that all that is required is industry and economy to realize a fortune in Oregon in a few years at most—and the best place to enjoy life after you have accumulated a fortune.

Business men—make a note of this and remember—MONEY MAKES THE OX GO, and patronize accordingly.
